

Community Center Task Force

May 3, 2016

(as stated by Task Force participants at the April 4, 2016 meeting)

Expectations

PRINCIPLES

- Cohesive center(s) which can serve the community now and next 20 years
- The positives/negatives and what would be best for Bloomington
- Consensus on need for and elements necessary to create a viable community gathering place

PROCESS

- A transparent process which will bring a recommendation to the City Council on the viability of a community center in the city of Bloomington
- Good discussions = good decisions
- Quality recommendation which meets needs of all Bloomington residents today and into the future

PLAN

- Determine potential future of new community center
- Outline a plan to build Bloomington's sense of community
- Produce community center plan that residents and businesses will be proud to use and support
- Present fully flushed out plan to City Council that serves all constituents
- Create a community center that is interesting to all ages
- Identify a community center concept that reflects the needs of the Bloomington community
- All-inclusive maintaining current human services programs
- That the community center meets the needs of a diverse citizenship and exposes all to multiple experiences
